Heating And Cooling Radiator
MAKES Air-Conditioning POSSIBLE
THROUGH HYDRONIC HEATING SYSTEM

When these wall insert radiators are installed with your Hydronic Heating System — a full air conditioning system can be had in summer by adding only a central chilling unit. Thus you have zoned cooling, through the same piping used for zoned heating. A manual rheostat controls comfort in every room or, if you wish, a thermostat controls temperature automatically. Units are sized to fit between standard studs — no carpentry required. You can enjoy all these benefits at once or add them as your budget permits.

BY ® Nationaline

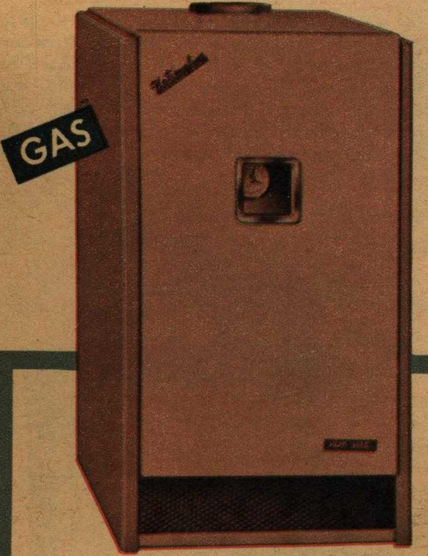
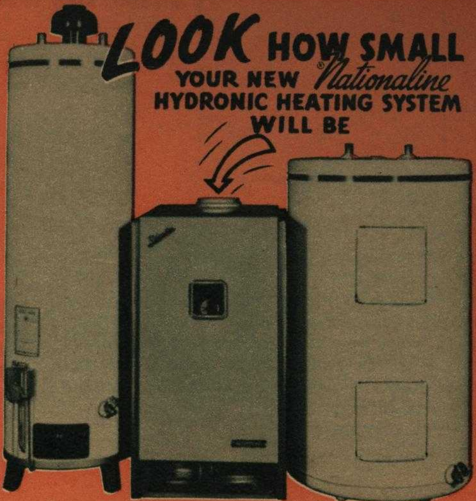
Designed For Placement In "Living Areas"





Nationaline Hydronic Boilers are now smaller than the normal size water heaters (30-gallon gas and 52-gallon electric), yet they will comfort heat the average 6-room home. The larger sizes can be equipped with self-contained domestic water coils which eliminate the need for a separate water heater. Heat your home the modern hydronic way . . . have more space for other purposes.

HEAT KING BOILERS ARE IDEAL FOR REMODELING OR REPLACEMENT WORK

Rid your home of that old space-killing furnace with its octopus-like duct-work, and convert your basement into extra living space. Heat King Boilers take less space than, and can replace the need for, your present water heater. They will heat your home with radiant warmth like that from the sun, and do it through concealed finger-thin piping or inconspicuous metal baseboard units. Units will pass through any standard doorway and no major structural alterations are required for installation. Gas models are A.G.A. approved and available in 80,000; 100,000; 130,000; 165,000; and 200,000 BTU sizes. Oil models are in 126,000; 168,000; and 210,000 BTU sizes. Boilers are shipped completely wired and assembled, ready for quick installation. Domestic coils, expansion and zoning systems optional.
